

Investigator

Conducts investigations of paranormal phenomenon using scientific methodology with a focus to debunk strange occurrences. Conducts investigation of client locations using EMF meters, audio/video recording devices, digital cameras and other applicable equipment. Examines evidence obtained during the investigation for identification and analysis. Reports findings of evidence from investigations to Tech Manager or management team. Performs any duties necessary as assigned by management.

1. Investigates client location and attempts to debunk client's claims or document paranormal activity.
2. Assists in setup/breakdown of equipment at client location under the direction of Lead Investigator / Tech Manager or above.
3. Reviews evidence recorded with personal equipment and submits findings. May be requested to assist Tech Manager with review of evidence with group equipment.
4. Must be able to meet 80% attendance policy for cases/meetings. Must show commitment to the team.
5. Follows the direction of Lead Investigator or management team member and assists in duties as assigned.

Position Reports to: Lead Investigator / Team Manager / Director

Job Description last reviewed: 7/2/2011

All positions with Carolina Paranormal Society are volunteer positions. There is no compensation at all. Time and materials necessary to participate with Carolina Paranormal Society are donated at your expense. Accepting a position with Carolina Paranormal Society binds you to the By-Laws and Terms of Membership of the group.